statutory and regulatory requirements and that the decisions of the Board and its Committees are implemented.

6. Mandate, fiduciary duties and responsibilities

The Board has the overall mandate to ensure that the company has an ethical culture and legitimacy and delivers good performance with effective controls. The Directors have the following fiduciary duties and responsibilities:

Leadership

- 6.1 The Board should lead ethically and effectively, based on the values of integrity; responsibility; accountability; fairness; transparency, professionalism and respect.
- 6.2 The Directors should always act in good faith, with the necessary due care, skill and diligence in the best interests of the Company.
- 6.3 Directors should ensure that they continuously have sufficient working knowledge of the organisation, its industry, the Triple Context in which the Company operates and the Capitals it uses and affects as well as the applicable laws, rules, regulations, codes and standards.
- 6.4 The Directors should accept collective responsibility for setting the direction of the Company, approving policy and planning, overseeing and monitoring implementation and execution by management and ensuring accountability for the Company's performance.
- 6.5 The Directors should guide the Company to ensure that the natural environment, society and future generations are not unduly adversely affected.
- 6.6 The Board should ensure the continued entrenchment of an ethical culture of the Company.

Responsible corporate citizenship

- 6.7 The Board should ensure that the Company remains and is perceived to be a responsible corporate citizen as the ultimate custodian of the corporate governance of the Company.
- 6.8 The Board should ensure the continued legal and other compliance of the Company.

6.9 The Board should ensure that a stakeholder-inclusive approach is followed, which balances the needs, interests and reasonable expectations of all stakeholders in the best interest of the Company to create inclusive growth and value for both the Company and its stakeholders.

Strategy and performance

6.10 The Board should approve the strategy of the Company, which is influenced by the legitimate needs and expectations of stakeholders; the risks and opportunities connected to the Triple Context in which the Company operates; the available resources and relationships with stakeholders; the impact of the Company on the Capitals and the interconnectivity and interdependence of all such factors.

6.11 The Board should practice integrated thinking in their deliberations and decision-making and promote such thinking across the Company

6.12 The Board is responsible to oversee and monitor the implementation and execution of the strategy, which includes policies and operational plans, and the continual assessment and response to negative consequences of the Company's activities and outputs on the triple context in which it operates and the Capitals it affects.

6.13 The Board should govern risk, with the assistance of the Risk Committee, as well as technology and information, in the furtherance of setting and achieving the Company's strategic objectives.

6.14 The Board, with the assistance of the Remuneration Committee, should ensure that the Company remunerates fairly, responsibly and transparently.

6.15 The Board, with the assistance of the Audit Committee, should ensure an effective control environment is maintained, which supports the integrity of information for internal decision-making and external reporting.

Reporting

6.16 The Board should ensure that the Company provides timeous, material, relevant, consistent, accurate and compliant information to its stakeholders, which includes the delivery of the integrated annual report, annual financial statements, interim reports and other relevant external reports, based on international best practice, including, but not limited to IFRS, the Companies Act, The Listings Requirements,

9.4 Remuneration Committee

9.4.1 The Remuneration Committee is primarily responsible to ensure that the employees are remunerated fairly, responsibly and transparently to assist the Company in achieving its strategic objectives.

9.5 Social and Ethics Committee

9.5.1 The Social and Ethics Committee is primarily responsible to ensure that the Company acts as and is seen as a law-abiding, responsible corporate citizen, acting ethically, and ensuring sustainable development and managing stakeholder relationships.

9.6 Investment Committee

9.6.1 The Investment Committee is primarily responsible to make recommendations to the Board on the strategic direction of the Company and reviews and advises on capital and other applications in terms of the Company's Limits of Authority.

10. Meeting procedures

10.1 Frequency

The Board shall meet at least four (4) times a year. Further meetings may be called by the Chairman of the Board or other members of the Board, and shall be governed by the provisions of the Company's MOI relating to meeting procedures.

10.2 Quorum, attendance and voting

10.2.1 A quorum for a meeting of the Board shall be eight members present personally, or by electronic means and no business shall be transacted at a meeting of the Board unless the requisite quorum is present.

10.2.2 Voting can take place in person, by teleconference, video conference or such other electronic means which may come into use in the future. Each director shall have one vote and all resolutions shall be passed by simple majority, unless specifically and expressly stipulated otherwise. All dissenting votes shall be duly recorded, whether in the meeting minutes or otherwise. Dissenting directors are to adhere to the Code of Ethics and ensure confidentiality is maintained in line with their duty to act in the best interests of the company.

10.2.3 Provided that notice is given to all Board members, a decision that could be voted on at a meeting of the Board may instead be adopted by written consent of a majority of the Board given in person or by electronic communication on a round robin basis.

10.2.4 A decision made by the Board as set out in paragraph 10.2.3 above, will be of the same effect as if the decision had been approved by voting at the meeting of the Board.

10.2.5 Senior management, assurance providers and professional advisors may attend Board meetings on invitation, but will not form part of the quorum or be entitled to vote at meetings.

10.2.6 Members must attend all Board meetings, unless a prior apology with reasons has been submitted to the Secretary and the Chairman.

10.2.7 Meetings of the Board may be conducted by electronic communication, one or more Directors may participate in a meeting by electronic communication provided the electronic communication facility employed ordinarily enables all persons participating in that meeting to communicate concurrently with each other without an intermediary and to participate effectively in the meeting.

11. General

11.1 An induction programme will be followed to familiarise newly appointed Directors with the Company's operations, senior management, its business environment and the sustainability issues relevant to its business.

11.2 The following will be done on an annual basis:

11.2.1 Review the performance of the Board, its committees, its chairperson and its individual members;

11.2.2 Review its Board Charter to ensure optimal effectiveness; and 11.2.3 Review and approve its Annual Work Plan.
